Beach Community Bank Welcomes Mortgage Loan Originator

Fort Walton Beach— Beach Community Mortgage is pleased to announce that Julie Kuhn has rejoined their loan origination team in Fort Walton Beach. A perineal top producer among her peers, Julie has over 27 years in the mortgage industry exclusively in the Okaloosa, Walton and Santa Rosa county areas. Her expertise in helping create homeownership opportunities has earned her a significant following of referral sources and satisfied clients.

“The addition of Julie to our already successful loan origination team will allow us to increase the number of families we touch through our lending options,” said Pam Woodall, President of Beach Community Mortgage. “Homeownership has a proven economic impact on any community and for us, it also creates a stronger connection with our military families stationed here. As a former military spouse, Julie has placed a strong focus of her business on serving the military homebuyer. “

Julie Kuhn’s office will be based in Fort Walton Beach, FL. Beach Community Mortgage is a wholly owned subsidiary of Beach Community Bank.
